Dear Sir,

LYNCOMBE VALE FARM, PLOUGHING OF PUBLIC FOOTPATH.

My Assistant informs me that you have now ploughed the above footpath, in accordance with your letter to the Town Clerk, and that you have replaced the posts marking the footpath.

The surface, however, is far from satisfactory, and while in fine weather, it is reasonably convenient for the exercise of the public right of way, rain would cause it to turn to mud, and it would be impassable without collecting a considerable amount of mud on one's shoes and clothing.

I would suggest that as well as treating the surface in some manner, you move the posts which are now only two feet apart, to a distance of three feet.

Yours faithfully,

City & Waterworks Engineer.

Public Footpath - Lyncombe Vale Farm.

I enclose a copy of a letter I have received from Mr.
P. Dingle giving notice of intention to plough the land across which the public footpath linking Foxhill with Lyncombe Vale crosses. I also enclose a copy of my reply to Mr. Dingle.

Would you kindly have this path inspected both before and after the ploughing so as to ensure Section 56 of the complied with.

REC. 20 FEB 1958

P.C.E.

P/86.   19th February,   58.

Dear Sir,

Lyncombe Vale Farm - Ploughing of public Footpath.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th instant giving notice of your intention to plough the field across which runs the public footpath linking Foxhill with Lyncombe Vale. I take it that it is your intention to plough the path at the same time as you are ploughing the remainder of the field, and I am accordingly accepting your letter as the requisite seven days notice under Section 56 of the National Parks and Access to Countryside Act, 1949 for this purpose.

I would, however, draw your attention to Section 56(3) of that Act which provides that where a public path is ploughed after the necessary notice has been given, the occupier of the land shall as soon as may be after the ploughing is completed make good the surface of the path so as to make it reasonably convenient for the exercise of the public right of way. Any person who fails to comply with this provision is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £10.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) JARED E. DIXON

Town Clerk.

Dear Sir,

Re: Lyncombe Vale Farm.

I wish to inform you that within the next fortnight, weather permitting, I intend to plough the field across which runs a public footpath linking Foxhill Hill with Lyncombe Vale.   I understand that seven days notice is necessary before cultivations begin, and this will be observed.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

FOOTPATH LINKING FOXHILL AND LYNCOMBE VALE.

I refer to your application to alter the position of a kissing-gate
on the public footpath across Lyncombe Vale Farm.

I have no objection to this taking place providing that it is replaced on the line of the existing right of way.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Re: Footpath linking Foxhill & Lyncombe Vale.

I wish to make an application for permission to move a turnstile giving access to a right of way across Lyncombe Vale Farm. In order to make a track to Foxhill Cottage, it is necessary to move the footpath turnstile four yards down the path, keeping in line with the existing path, but making a hard core approach to the right of way.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
