Notes

1. The surface mining coal resource areas shown have been derived from current information available to the Coal Authority and British Geological Survey. Due to geological uncertainties further surface mining coal resources maybe available beyond the boundaries that are currently shown.
2. The plan only relates to surface mining coal resources it does not preclude other coal resources available from deep mining operations, coal bed methane, abandoned mine methane and underground coal gasification.
3. The extent of previous surface mining operations are shown for information only, coal resources may still be available within these areas.
